WINTER WELCOME CRAFT

Blossom kids had a blast making snowmen paper rolls—one for the head, one tiny one for the hat, and skipping the body rolls—painting black eyes, an orange carrot nose, pink cheek dots and a cheeky smile, then slapping them onto bright “SNOWMAN” paper bases while laughing and singing winter songs 🎵. This craft boosted fine motor skills as they glued, painted, and added tiny details like buttons and eyes 👁️. They also got super creative with hats, twig arms, and scarves 🧶 ! 🎉 🎭

REPUBLIC DAY

The Blossom kids celebrated Republic Day with a vibrant “Tiranga Q-Tip Painting” activity, where they used cotton-tip buds to dab saffron, white and green paint onto paper strips, creating India’s tricolour flag with a blue Ashoka Chakra in the middle. Each child proudly displayed their handmade flag on a drawn flag-post and had “HAPPY REPUBLIC DAY” written below, showcasing fine-motor skills, creativity and patriotic spirit. 🎨

EMOTION CHARADES

The Blossom Kids emotion charades activity was a fun life-skill exercise that boosted communication development by helping children identify and express emotions. In this game, kids acted out feelings shown on an “Emotions” chart—like joy, sadness, anger, or boredom—while their friends guessed the emotion, sharpening their emotional vocabulary and non-verbal communication skills. This interactive method made learning about feelings engaging and had built empathy and expressive abilities in young learners.
